TOP CHEF top 10

The Top Chef Season One winner shows his love for Thai flavors at his Manhattan restaurant Kin Shop. Here, he tells F&W's Kate Krader about more of his passions, including the TV series Game of Thrones.

THAI SHRIMP-AND-COCONUT SOUP WITH LEMONGRASS (RECIPE, P. 214)

4 THAI SHRIMP-AND-COCONUT SOUP "This is a feel-good soup for me; I eat it year round. I love the rich coconut milk, combined with the sweetness of the shrimp and the heat of the chiles."

7 FISHING "I went tuna fishing with Tom Colicchio. I put squid on my lure, but Tom won't put fresh bait on a rubber lure—he's a purist. He gave me grief, but I didn't care, I wanted to catch something."

8 GAME OF THRONES "This show on HBO is out of control. It's about power struggles, getting to the top. It's a fictional story that looks like it's set in medieval times."

9 FIGHTER PILOT "If I had 20/20 vision, that's what I'd want to be. In second grade, my teacher told me I couldn't be a pilot because of my bad eyesight. I was heartbroken."

10 SNEAKERS "I'm a Puma guy. I only have one pair at a time. I've got suede ones right now that are all black—black on black with black laces."

1 ISRAELI POKER "My wife, Meredith, and I just learned this game. It's like solitaire. You set up rows of cards and draw them down to get the best hand."

2 BEASTIE BOYS "My favorite song is anything from their old album Licensed to Ill."

3 THANKSGIVING "We have an Italian-American feast. We start with antipasti: cured meat, marinated artichokes, cheeses. Next is lasagna. Then it's turkey with all the fixings. It's, like, an eight-hour meal."

5 SAWTOOTH "I use this herb in place of cilantro anywhere I can; it's 10 times better. It's recao in Spanish, or pak chi farang in Thai. I like to grind it into curry pastes."

6 THAI BOXING "That's my sport. It's also called Muay Thai or the Art of Eight Points. You use fists, elbows, knees, feet. My kicks are like a jackhammer."
